1. Statement of Intent

- 1.1 At Astrea Academy Dearne, we understand that all scholars must be provided with an education that prepares them for the opportunities, responsibilities and experiences of adult life. A key part of this relates to relationships, sex and health education which will aim to support scholars to make informed decisions about their wellbeing, health and relationships, and to build their self-efficacy.
- 1.2 Astrea Academy Dearne recognises that RHSE (Relationships, Health and Sex Education) must take into account all of our scholars' needs; for example: gender, religion, sexual orientation, SEND, maturity, etc. We understand our responsibility to deliver a high-quality, age-appropriate and evidence-based relationships, health curriculum for all our scholars and sex education, where appropriate.
- 1.3 This policy sets out the framework for our relationships, sex and health curriculum, providing clarity on how it is informed, organised and delivered.

2. Legal Framework

- 2.1 As a secondary academy, we must provide RSE to all pupils under section 34 of the Children and Social Work Act 2017.
- 2.2 In teaching RSE, we're required by our funding agreements to have regard to guidance issued by the secretary of state, as outlined in section 403 of the Education Act 1996.
- 2.3 We also have regard to legal duties set out in:
 - ★ Sections 406 and 407 of the Education Act 1996
 - ★ Part 6, chapter 1 of the Equality Act 2010
- a) The Public Sector Equality Duty (as set out in section 149 of the Equality Act 2010). This duty requires public bodies to have due regard to the need to eliminate discrimination, advance equality of opportunity and foster good relations between different people when carrying out their activities. At Astrea Academy Dearne, we teach RSE as set out in this policy.

- ★ Scholars are expected to engage fully in RSE and, when discussing issues related to RSE, treat others with respect and sensitivity

4. Policy development

4.1 This policy has been developed in consultation with staff and scholars. The consultation and policy development process involved the following steps:

- a) Review – the Assistant Principal for Personal Development pulled together all relevant information including national and local guidance.
- b) Staff consultation – all school staff were given the opportunity to look at the policy and make recommendations.
- d) Scholar consultation – we conducted scholar voice on what scholars want from their RSE.

5. Definition

5.1 RSE is about the emotional, social and cultural development of scholars, and involves learning about relationships, healthy lifestyles, diversity and personal identity. At secondary phase, scholars will also learn about sexual health, sexuality and consent.

5.2 RSE involves a combination of sharing information, and exploring issues and values.

5.3 RSE is not about the promotion of sexual activity.

6. Curriculum

6.1 Our curriculum is set out as per Appendix 1 and 2, but this may need to be adapted as and when necessary.

6.2 The curriculum has been developed in consultation with scholars and staff. It also takes into consideration local issues within our community which may impact upon scholars. If scholars ask questions outside the scope of this policy, teachers will respond in an appropriate manner so they are fully informed and don't seek answers online.

7. Delivery of RSE

7.1 RSE is taught within the personal, social, health and economic (PSHE) education curriculum which is part of Personal Development. These lessons are labelled 'Personal Development' on scholars' timetables. Biological aspects of RSE are also taught within the science curriculum, and other aspects are included in religious education (RE).

7.2 RSE focuses on giving young people the information they need to help them develop healthy, nurturing relationships of all kinds including:

- ★ Families
- ★ Respectful relationships, including friendships

- ★* Online and media
- ★* Being safe
- ★* Intimate and sexual relationships, including sexual health

For more information about our RSE curriculum, see Appendix 3

- 7.3 These areas of learning are taught within the context of family life taking care to ensure that there is no stigmatisation of children based on their home circumstances (families can include single parent families, LGBT parents, families headed by grandparents, adoptive parents, foster parents/carers amongst other structures) along with reflecting sensitively that some children may have a different structure of support around them (for example: looked after children or young carers).

8. Parents' right to withdraw

- 8.1 parents have the right to withdraw their children from the non-statutory/non-science components of sex education within RSE up to and until 3 terms before the child turns 16. After this point, if the child wishes to receive sex education rather than being withdrawn, the school will arrange this.
- 8.2 Requests for withdrawal should be put in writing using the form found in Appendix 3 of this policy and addressed to the Principal.
- 8.3 A copy of withdrawal requests will be placed in the scholars' educational record. The Principal will discuss the request with parents and take appropriate action.
- 8.4 Alternative work will be given to scholars who are withdrawn from sex education.

9. Training

- 9.1 Staff are trained on the delivery of RSE as part of the continuing professional development calendar.
- 9.2 The Assistant Principal for Personal Development will also invite visitors from outside the school, such as school nurses or sexual health professionals, to provide support and training to staff teaching RSE.
- 9.3 Training will also be scheduled around any updated guidance on the curriculum and any new development, such as 'sexting' and 'county lines', which may need to be addressed in relation to the curriculum.

10. Monitoring arrangements

10.1 The delivery of RSE is monitored by the Assistant Principal for Personal Development through:

- ★* Learning walks
- ★* Work scrutiny

★ Stakeholder feedback

10.2 This policy will be reviewed by the Assistant Principal for Personal Development, annually. At every review, the policy will be approved by the local governing committee.
